

Annual Report of 2012-2013

Shanhe Jiang
President of the ACCCJ

Time flies! Another year has passed. This is our fourth time that we gather at the general meeting of ACCCJ. In this past year, our members have achieved a lot. The two ACCCJ Newsletters reflected some of them. ACCCJ has done activities. Here are some highlights.

- The Board adopted the logo of ACCCJ. Thanks go to Ivan Sun and his committee for organizing the design of the logo and selection of the logo. Thanks also go to Bill Hebenton for volunteering his daughter to design the logo for ACCCJ. Special thanks go to Helen Hebenton for her beautiful art design, hard work and transferring the copyright of the logo to ACCCJ.
- Based on the recommendation from the previous president of the ACCCJ, we relocated the ACCCJ website. The current ACCCJ website is <http://accj.org>.
- Our Gmail group list (listserv) remains the most useful means to communicate with our members. A lot of information has been shared there. If you have not linked there, please contact Liqun Cao, he can add you in.
- Our newsletter has published biannually in this year. Bill Hebenton and his team have been working hard on it. Many thanks to their professional dedication.
- Our members continue to be very productive in publication. I would like to mention one here which involved many of the ACCCJ members. That is the book called Handbook of Chinese Criminology, edited by Liqun Cao, Ivan Sun and Bill Hebenton.

- Annual dinner: This is our fun event and tradition! We had a wonderful dinner in Chicago's Chinatown in the November 2012. Xiaogang Deng organized the dinner with assistance by Mengyan Dai. Many thanks to both. Please join us to this year's annual dinner organized by Mengyan Dai.

I thank president-elect Lening Zhang, Treasurer Xia Wang, and board members Mengyan Dai, Min Xie, Huan Gao and Ivan Sun for their service on the ACCCJ Board. My thanks also go to Liqun Cao, Bin Liang, Bill Heberton and many other members for their helps and assistance to run this wonderful organization.

This organization is our (members') organization. Without members' participation and support, we cannot run it. I know everyone is busy for his/her teaching and research. On behalf of the Board, I seek your suggestions and participation. If you have any thoughts, please send them to me or other board members.

Enjoy the ASC conference in Atlanta and have a safe trip back!
